Chapter 11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG)

244th Omnibus Objection
Claim # 70910

Claimants:
Austin and Rebecca Viall
710 Keller Lane
Tuscumbia, AL 35674
(256) 383-3117

Amount of claim: $ 437,736.00, the cost of 11,900 shares of GMC stock and 300 shares MTL as of February 2, 2011.

Attached is evidence of purchase of GM stock through E-Trade from June 2, 2009 through July 7, 2009, totaling 11,900 shares. In addition we claim 300 shares of GM stock as promised with purchase of 300 shares of MTL, after the name change.

On February 26, 2010, I contacted E-Trade to purchase more GM stock. I was told by E-Trade representative's that GMC had been divided into tw divisions and they could not sell us more stock in the old GMC, but could sell us stock in the new GMC division, Motors Liquidation Corp. I was assured that all shares of MLC would be exchanged for equal shares of GMC when GMC was again listed on the stock exchange. Based on this I purchased the additional 300 shares.

Our claim is for the exchange cost of these shares plus any additional cost for legal or travel expense.

Our request from E-Trade for a copy of our conversations has not been furnished yet, although it was requested to be here by March 12, 2011. We have been informed that the conversations will have to be subpoenaed by the courts. We were promised the 300 shares of MTL would be added to the 11,900 shares of GM stock upon their return listing on the stock market.

We only learned of the bankruptcy when we received papers from the Garden City Group in early February, 2010, and have been trying to resolve this issue

Their name change has nothing to do with 11,900 shares of GM stock which we purchased through E-Trade.

I can make myself available to come to New York if needed and bring any information I have but would prefer to not make the trip.

Respectfully yours,

Rebecca Viall
